The main image shows a modern two-story house with a gabled roof. The upper part of the house is finished with grey horizontal cladding, while the lower part is red brick. It features a large front window, a balcony with a glass railing, and a garage with a green door. The house is surrounded by landscaping, including bushes and a green street lamp. Other houses and a car are visible in the background under a blue sky with white clouds.

Handford Crescent

Shirley

Offers Around £479,000

Description

Handford Crescent is located on the exciting new development 'The Green' that is situated on the edge of Shirley; ideally placed to take advantage of the facilities offered by both Shirley town centre and the popular Solihull town centre, with the modern and vibrant Touchwood Centre and a mainline train station with links to Birmingham and London.

Some 1.5 miles away from the property is the M42 motorway forming the heart of the Midland Motorway Network. Two junctions down the M42 is junction 6 with direct access to Birmingham International Airport and the National Exhibition Centre.

An ideal location therefore for this very well presented modern three storey detached house which was constructed originally by Charles Church Homes and offers versatile living accommodation that has been maintained to a good standard by the current owners who purchased the property when new.

Sitting back from the road behind a small foregarden with a driveway to the side that leads to the garage. A composite front door with double glazed insets opens directly to the hallway with doors off to the lounge, guest cloaks, kitchen diner and utility off there. On the first floor there is a double bedroom with en-suite, two further good size bedrooms and family bathroom and stairs rising to the second floor landing where the door leads to master bedroom with en-suite.
